++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Cloudy with some drizzle. West a little brighter.

Today:
A cloudy morning, with a few sunny spells in the west and patchy drizzle over eastern hills. Remaining largely cloudy into the afternoon with a few light showers possible, but staying dry for most. Feeling pleasant where the sun appears. Maximum temperature 13 deg C (55 deg F).

Tonight:
The low lying cloud persists overnight, as does the patchy drizzle, which will mainly affect eastern areas. Winds will be light. Generally frost-free. Minimum temperature 5 deg C (41 deg F).

Saturday:
Another murky day, with low cloud and some early patchy drizzle. Skies may brighten slightly in the south towards the evening. Turning breezy later. Mild in the south and east. Maximum temperature 13 deg C (55 deg F).

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
Generally cloudy through this period, with only occasional brighter spells. The possibility of light rain or drizzle continues at times too. Breezy next week.
